*Obviously, there is the reality

But it is undoubtedly
as well, that there are
dreams
in it too.

So, what is it...

...and why is it so important for people to dream sometimes?

*In fact, it has a simple explanation.
Our life is like a difficult road
with a big set of rules.*

But dreams let any soul to throw aside any rules and limitations,

...and in a second find ourselves in a place,

...where we really want to be.

*And it is quite possible that dreams are an invisible certain reality.
Such as radio waves, for example.*

And, then who knows what role the dreamers really play in this world...

Of course, different people have different dreams.

Sometimes they may be amusing,

...sometimes,
they may
not seem too
reasonable.

So what?
That's why
they are dreams!

What do
people like
to dream
about most of all?

In fact, there is a countless number of things to dream about in the world.

There are
dreams
about
simple
things,

...and about big, complex ones.

Someone
dreams about
an interesting hobby.

*And others
want to take a trip
to a beautiful
country.*

Those who value feelings most of all dream about true friendship,

*...and about
unforgettable
meetings.*

However, the most important dreams in humanity are still the dreams about love.

*(Well, or about
a very big love...)*

Nothing changes here for thousands of years. And it's great.

Actually, suspiciously many sages said that dreams could be materialized,

*...or, in other words,
they can be reflected in our real life.*

So maybe later we all will figure out that dreaming is...

*...not such
a useless
activity...*

What do we know about dreams

An underwater photograph showing several people swimming in clear blue water. In the foreground, there is a large, vibrant coral reef with various shades of orange, yellow, and green. The water is bright blue, and the scene is well-lit, suggesting a sunny day. The text is overlaid on the upper half of the image.

*What are the dreams
and what do people
need them for?*

*Let's reflect about
this topic a little.*
