Once upon a time there was a courageous young man from a good family of divers. More than anything else he dreamed of being loved by a mermaid.

In search of his dream, he swam all over the seas, looking into dark caves,

...and under snow-white icebergs.

Until finally, a wise bird suggested...

...that he visit one particular island.

On this island lived a very ancient tribe found nowhere else. It was a tribe that mermaids had loved for thousands years.

*This was not a coincidence
as they prepared
themselves for
it from early childhood.*

Until they became very brave, which in turn made them very attractive to the mermaids.

*They also knew how
to make a special
equipment
for their underwater
encounters.*

So, our guy begged them to become their pupil. And, for three years, he honestly studied customs of the tribe.

*When he returned
home, with the help of his father and his
whole family
he soon made
his own
equipment.*

He then spent a long time practicing in the pool and preparing himself to meet a mermaid. Finally his time came.

*“Well, son, here we go. You are ready,”
his father told him at last.
“The main thing is to believe that a mermaid will not pass you by!”*

“I believe it dad!”

*“Off you go. Make sure you don’t mix up your welcome speech.
Mermaids can be very unforgiving.”*

“Oh, my beloved mermaid!” the young man spoke aloud upon landing on seabed. “For many years, all my thoughts have only been about you! My head is crackling inside from all this love!”

*“Swim over
to me, my
fishtailed
desire!
I have swum
across all
the oceans
in search
of you!”*

You see, I have even brought you some breakfast...

*When you make up your mind just
pull on this
blue rope
and I shall
come to you
at once.”*

*Having
said all this
out loud he swam back.*

*“Well dad, that’s it. I have done everything the tribe has taught me.”
“Perfect! Let’s wait...”*

*Three long years passed.
When suddenly...*

“Dad! She tugged on the rope last night!”

“You see, I was asleep, when suddenly, I felt that someone was gently pulling at me...”

“That’s definitely her, son!”

“Quickly quickly, put on your hat and go to her!”

*“I wasn’t wasting my time either
and prepared
this fine
underwater
limousine for your visit!”*

“And remember well the advice of that tribe: mermaids love only those who are decisive. As soon as you see her, kiss her immediately!”

“Ok dad, I’ll try...”

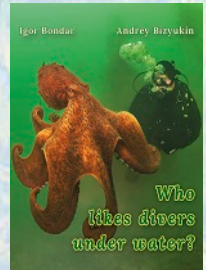

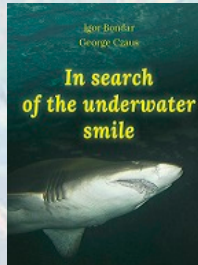

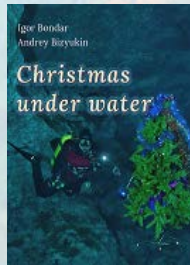

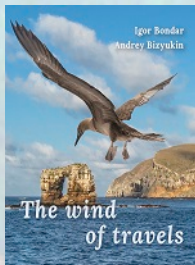

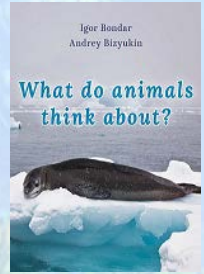

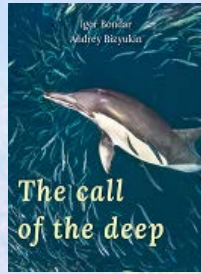

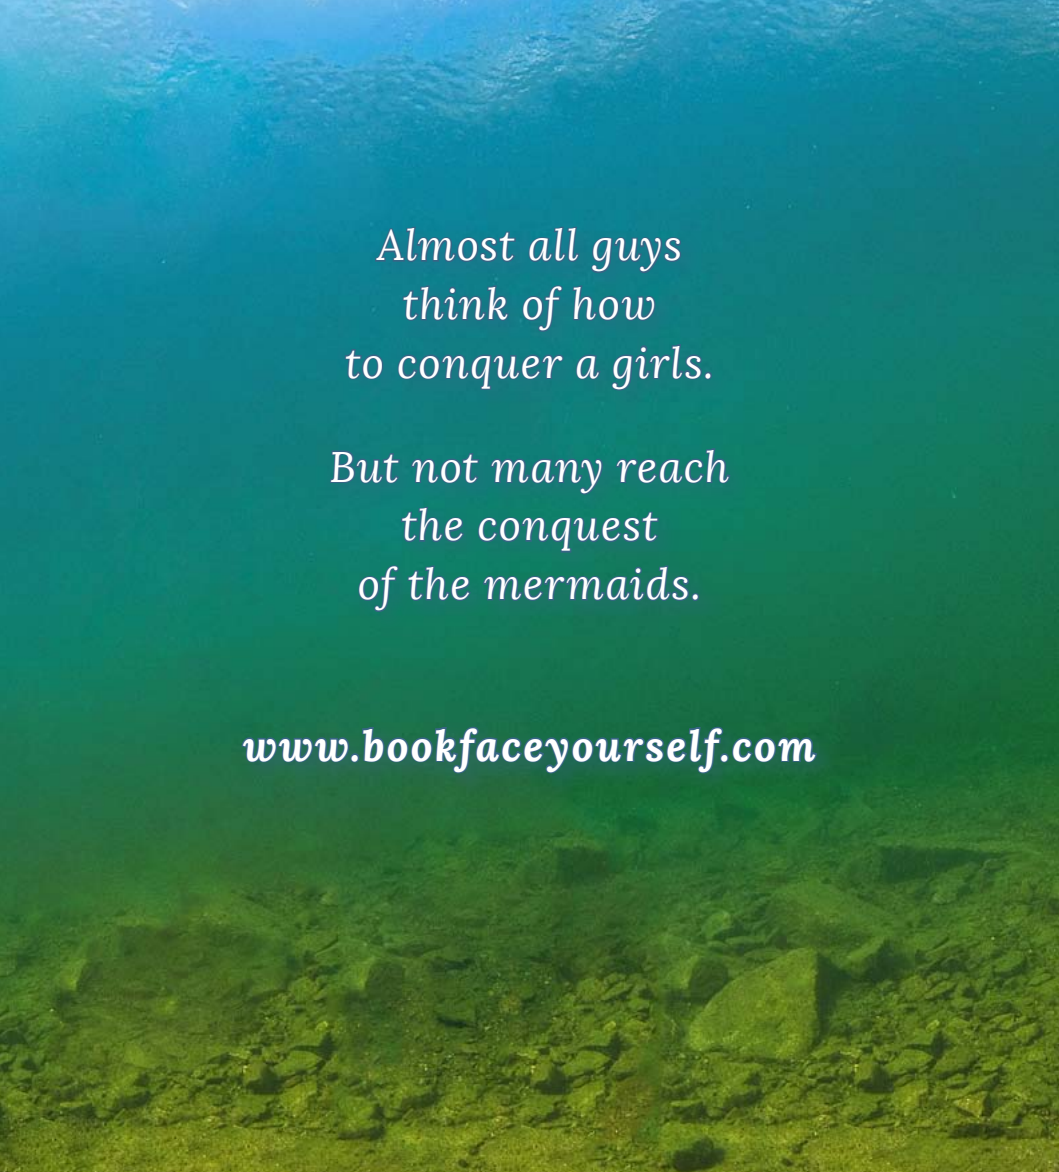

“Well, now I have fixed up my elder son. It is time to think about the younger one. I wonder what potential brides might be interested in his red beanie?”
